

Name: Fred Aldrich, Janna Barger, Mary Brady, Ira Kirkpatrick

LESSON PLAN

Lesson Topic: The Emmett Till Case

Grade Level: 8-12

Broad-Based Theme: The Emmett Till Case as the Catalyst to the Civil Rights Movement

Generalizations (3 or 4):

1. Interaction with a new environment affects people's lives.
2. Conflicts occur between persons of different cultural groups.
3. A significant event can have a long-lasting effect on historical, social, political, legal and moral issues.

Guiding Questions (GQ):

1. How did interaction with the Mississippi Delta cost Emmett Till his life?
2. How did an event in an isolated community become a worldwide news item?
3. Why has the Emmett Till case remained a burning issue for 55 years?
4. What lasting effects has the case had on American society?

Lesson Plan Objective(s):	Gen/GQ #	Procedure:		Evaluation related to objectives
Each student will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *read an article about the Emmett Till case with understanding *ask pertinent questions about facts and vocabulary found in the article * develop an understanding of the rules of a teacher-made game *participate maturely in the game *research one aspect of the Emmett Till case from internet or hard copy sources *participate in the preparation and presentation of a group 		A. Introduction/Motivation <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Distribute articles to each student to read silently. 2. Direct each student to write three questions from the article on a 3x5 index card. Each question must have a 1-2 word answer. 3. Question cards are used for a game. (See Attachment #1) B. Study/Learning Activities <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Divide the class into groups. Each group will be assigned one aspect of the case to research and report upon. Groups are <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Incident The Crime The Arrest The Funeral The Trial The Aftermath 		Evaluation related to objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Teacher observation (1-4) *grade for research and report * grade for follow-up response *grade on exam

report <ul style="list-style-type: none">*ruminates on the culminating question*thoughtfully addresses the culminating question in a five-paragraph essay*passes a teacher-made test on the facts of the case with at least 85% comprehension		C. Culmination Each student will write a five-paragraph essay on the following question: “What could anyone have done to assure that justice would have been done in the Emmett Till case?” Students must choose three people involved in the Till case (excluding Emmett Till) and analyze and explain what each could have done differently to change the outcome. D. Follow-up: In Civil Rights unit, continue to reference the Emmett Till case
--	--	--	--	--